CF Bike-A-Thon This Saturday

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation will be sponsoring a "Cyclin' for CF" Bike-a-thon on May 31 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The announcement was made by Darla Moore, volunteer Chairperson for the 1980 CF Bike-a-thon.

The course will begin with registration at Camp Grayling and will run on a 1 mile course. A participant may complete the course as many times as he wishes. The event is open to all persons who obtain prior sponsorship for at least 10 cents per mile. A person may get as many sponsors as he can. All proceeds will go to benefit children stricken with Cystic Fibrosis and related lung diseases. An official CF T-shirt will be awarded to all those who bring in $25-$49; bike bag to those turning in $50-$99 and both a T-shirt and bike bag to those turning in $100 or more.

Cystic Fibrosis is a terminal, genetic disease which affects the lungs and digestive system of children. One in 20 persons (over 400,000 Michiganders) are carriers of the recessive CF gene. Research sponsored by the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation has increased the life expectancy of CF children by more than 16 years in the past 17 years of activity.

Anyone wishing to participate in this project should contact Darla Moore at 348-6525 or 348-9633 for further details and registration forms.

33 riders participated in last years Bike-A-Thon with 31 bikers earning T-shirts. A total of $1,677 was raised for Cystic Fibrosis. For those who need transportation to Camp Grayling meet at the Middle School Gym by 9:45 a.m.

Sponsor Sheets are available at all school offices, and at the Crawford County Avalanche.

Meeting Called For Disaster Loans

Washington, D.C.—Northern Michigan Congressman Bob Davis is urging business owners having questions about federal economic disaster loans for companies that lost money because of the mild winter to attend a meeting he is sponsoring.

Davis, and 10th District Congressman Don Albosta, have asked the Michigan Director of the Small Business Administration, Ray Harshman, to explain the disaster loan application procedure and the status of funds for these loans.

Davis and Albosta are pushing for passage of a supplemental appropriations bill which will include additional funds for the Small Business Administration and their disaster loan program.

"I think SBA has a lot of questions to answer. This whole program for businesses hurt by the lack of snow seems to have poorly handled. This is a great opportunity for business people to question SBA officials directly," Davis pointed out.

The meeting has been scheduled for Friday, May 30 at 1 p.m. at the Holiday Inn in Houghton Lake. For further information, contact Jan Howell in Davis' Washington office at (202) 225-4735.

1980 Family Attractions Guide

Bay City—The East Michigan Tourist Association is releasing its new, 1980 Family Attraction Guide to the general public. The Family Attractions brochure is a condensed version of the popular 132-page Summer Travel Guide.

Thirty six popular travel attractions are fully described. The attractions include theme parks, museums, rides, animal parks, general stores, historic shops, ferry boats, fishing ponds, gardens, shrines and canoe liveries. The respective businesses have their location and phone numbers listed along with any distinguished travel ratings. Each attraction is numbered and pinpointed on a Michigan highway map which is part of the brochure itself. This makes locating an attraction very easy.

Admission price information is also included. There are details on four bridges and their specific crossing fees. These include, the Mackinac, the Sault Ste. Marie International, the Detroit Ambassador and Port Huron's Blue Water bridges. The Windsor Tunnel rates are among the fare listings.

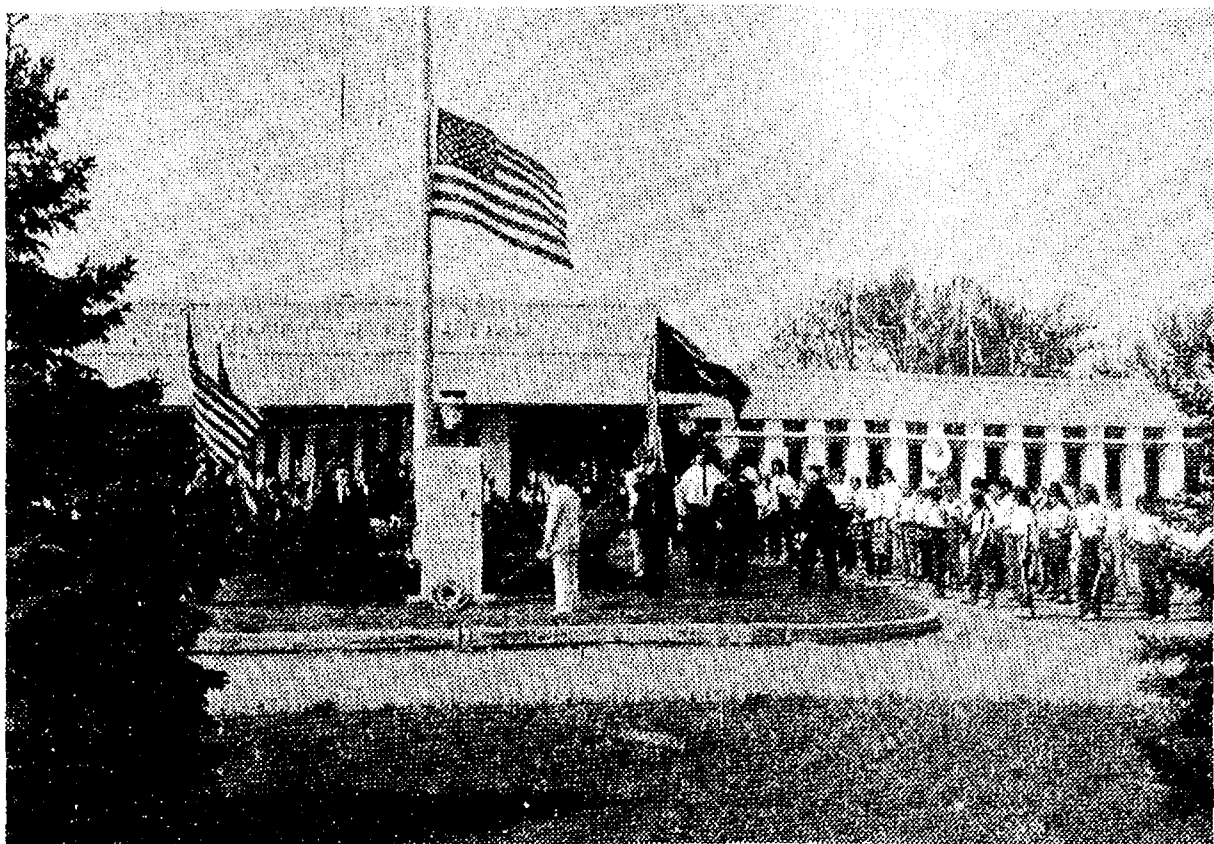

Like all travel literature offered by the EMTA, the 1980 Family Attractions Guide is free of charge. Copies can be obtained by contacting the East Michigan Tourist Association, 1 Wenonah Park, Bay City, MI 48706. In the 517 Area call Toll Free: 1-800-322-4825, other areas call: 1-517-895-8823.

BOY'S STATE PARTICIPANTS—This group of four GHS juniors will be off to Boy's State, a week-long government training program beginning June 11th at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

The four will be among 400 students from around Michigan learning about local, state and federal governmental systems. (Joe Schrader photo)

Public Housing Has a New Image

Over the years, many people were of the opinion that public housing was for only the lowest of incomes and for those to whom no one else would rent. This is far from the truth. The "new emphasis" is on a broad range of income; all in the low to middle income bracket but not necessarily the lowest. It is now necessary to have a certain percentage of the tenants within each income range, per HUD new guidelines, in order to balance out operational budgets. Federal subsidies are very small and limited and utilities costs are very high. Therefore, if you rent to all of the lowest gross incomes, and 25% of their income is all they pay in rent and utilities, how do you pay for utilities and up keep? It is not possible to operate and pay utilities if everyone is paying $40.00 to $50.00 per month.

It is expected that we will have two, four bedroom units vacant in June (one, June 1st). We are looking for two families with from five to eight persons each to rent each one of these units. The total yearly family income bracket we need for these two units is between $9,920.00-$11,600.00.

The other qualifications are:

1. A good housekeeper and one who takes care of the unit. No rough treatment of the unit or yard or disturbing the neighbors.

2. That you pay your rent promptly each month between the 1st and 5th of the month.

3. You must have three reliable references on credit as far as paying your past rent, good habits (such as no drug abuse, etc.) good housekeeping. Your references will be checked.

If you meet the above qualifications and need a four bedroom unit, please stop in to the office at Ausagra Acres, 308 Lawndale Drive, Grayling and make out an application.

We are proud of the apartments at Ausagra Acres and we aim to provide a clean and healthy as well as economical way of life for our tenants and cultivate an atmosphere in which you are proud to live.

We had hoped to start construction this summer for 18 new units for elderly but as of today we are told that monies to the State HUD Offices have been cut drastically and we will have to wait our turn until monies become available. We have been HUD approved for the units but there is no funds to advance to us to build at this time. Hopefully, by fall.

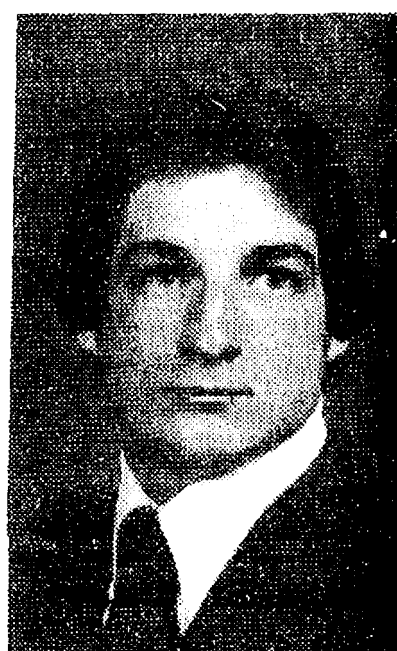

We have lots of good elderly applicants however, we need some in an income of $8,200.00 per year for one elderly, $9,350.00 per year for a couple range for the next vacancies to be filled. If you have felt that you wouldn't qualify, because your Social Security was too high, come in and see us and go

Jim Kitch Appointed To West Point

Washington, D.C.—James Roger Kitch, son of George and Lorna Morse of Grayling, has received a Congressional appointment to attend the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, according to Northern Michigan Congressman Bob Davis.

Kitch, who will graduate from GHS June 6th, received his appointment after being nominated by Congressman Davis. He was a 2-year member of the GHS varsity football and basketball squads and also lettered in track as a freshman.

He performed in a number of spring musicals and was a member of the marching, concert and jazz bands. He also held a number of class offices throughout his high school career and maintained a high scholastic average throughout. Kitch is an active member of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship at Michelson Memorial Church.

Congressman Davis said, "I am always pleased to see fine young people participate in the armed services. Of course, it's even more pleasant to see young people from Northern Michigan want to fulfill their patriotic duty."

Kitch will report for training at West Point July 1st.

Wildlife Artist 'Migrates' to Grayling

By Joe Schrader

What started out as a childhood hobby has turned into a fulltime profession for wildlife artist Charles McDaniel, who moved to Grayling a year ago to pursue a love for painting he's entertained all his life.

"When I sold my first painting five years ago I decided to go into it fulltime," the 31-year old McDaniel says about a decision he made in 1975 that ignited a career in Oklahoma that has led him to enjoy Mother Nature here on the banks of the AuSable.

But it's not just coincidence that brought McDaniel to the northern Michigan area. The artist is married to the former Sharon Anderson of Grayling who he met in Duncan, Oklahoma where he was working as a machinist and painting just for fun. "I liked it here in Grayling so much we decided to move here permanently," said McDaniel, who confesses that wildlife painting, birds, ducks, geese, animals and the like, captures most of his artistic talents.

But can one make a living working fulltime as an artist in Grayling? Relaxing at home with his wife at their Lake Street home, McDaniel's reaction to that query was quick. He pointed to a painting he had put out for display in his living room. "You see this," he says about a painting of a pair of bluejays perched in a tree, "I'm busy fulltime right now just keeping up with orders I have for scenes like these."

Born in Oklahoma and raised in Houston, the Viet Nam war vet began to paint professionally in 1975 after serving as a machine shop apprentice in Mississippi, and working as a machinist in Duncan, Oklahoma. There he met dozens of other artists in the various clubs he joined, and now displays and merchandizes their paintings along with his own. "I've probably got 135 or so paintings for sale right now," he said. They include scenes of all kinds, from land to sea to air.

McDaniel's paintings are on display in a number of Grayling businesses, along with works by many of his colleagues. In addition, he travels throughout northern Michigan to participate in organized art shows, where he can represent only his own work. He has two shows on the docket in the Traverse City area and plans to move around the art circuit, showing his works at shopping centers, malls, etc. through the summer months. Memorial Weekend he displayed paintings at Ray's Canoe Livery and says he will probably set up shop during the upcoming Corvette Show scheduled for June 7th.

His works capture the beauty of Mother Nature at her best. They portray wild game in their natural habitat, in vivid mixtures of bright, cheerful tints, hues and outdoor complexions.

Even though his talents extend to other art subjects, he admits that wildlife scenes are his specialty and his first love. And Grayling, like Oklahoma, he says, represents an ideal location for this type of work. But the climate here is better, though, McDaniel says, because the cooler temperatures makes the need to paint in an air-conditioned setting unnecessary. And he personally prefers the overall weather conditions here in Michigan besides.

One thing he does avoid, though, is portrait painting, calling customers for that type of art, "too hard to please." He gets no pleasure out of selling his work unless the customer's reaction is clearly positive, McDaniel emphasized.

His paintings, along with those of colleagues, are displayed at Milltown Party Store, Weaver's Gifts, Dan & Maggie's Arrow Gas, Little Caesar and at Ben Franklin in the shopping center.

The McDaniel's have one son, Brian, a Grayling Elementary fourth grader.

From Our Corner ...

We lost another friend last week with the passing of Father John Carlton, Pastor Emeritus of St. Francis Episcopal Church here.

We were not a member of his congregation, and had only known him a short while, but, with his friendliness toward everyone he met made us feel like we had known him forever.

His friendly smile along with his pure white hair and dignified stature made him stand out among his fellow men as a symbol of purity.

Without a doubt one of the finest evenings Thelma and I ever enjoyed was one New Years Eve when we were invited to join Father John, his wife Jane and Dr. Blaha and his wife Eddie for dinner.

We had known him before this but for some reason spending this little bit of time with him gave us a warm feeling inside that we hadn't experienced before.

His wife Jane and family will miss him dearly...and for any consolation, we know that every person whose life crossed paths with Father John will also miss him dearly.

May 20th has got to go down in the history books as one of the biggest and most expensive farcical events in Michigan...we speak of the Republican Presidential Primary held that day...anyone who was behind this fiasco should be real proud...the way our nation and state are in the financial bind we are and then practically throwing from between 4 and 5 million dollars to the wind so to speak.

The day after George Bush won the ego trip over Ronald Reagan for nomination, he stated in the papers that he was deciding to pull out of the race...now wasn't that beautiful...must be those who push these kind of things don't have to worry where their next meal is coming from...

For our readers who may be interested, we survived our 41st class reunion held in Gaylord this past weekend...it is a good thing we planned to stay over night with our elder brother Svend and his wife Helen...they must have planted orange groves since we left up there, because there was an awful lot of orange pop.

They should change the name from reunion to guess who I am get-together...we never knew there were so many bald guys in our class back in '39...and never really knew there were so many pretty girls with grey hair in our class...but then strange things happen as the water passes under the bridge...there was a funny guy there that after he guessed who I was made the statement that the last time he had seen me I could stand under a clothesline and be in the shade, and now it would have to take a water tower...we're not friends anymore...

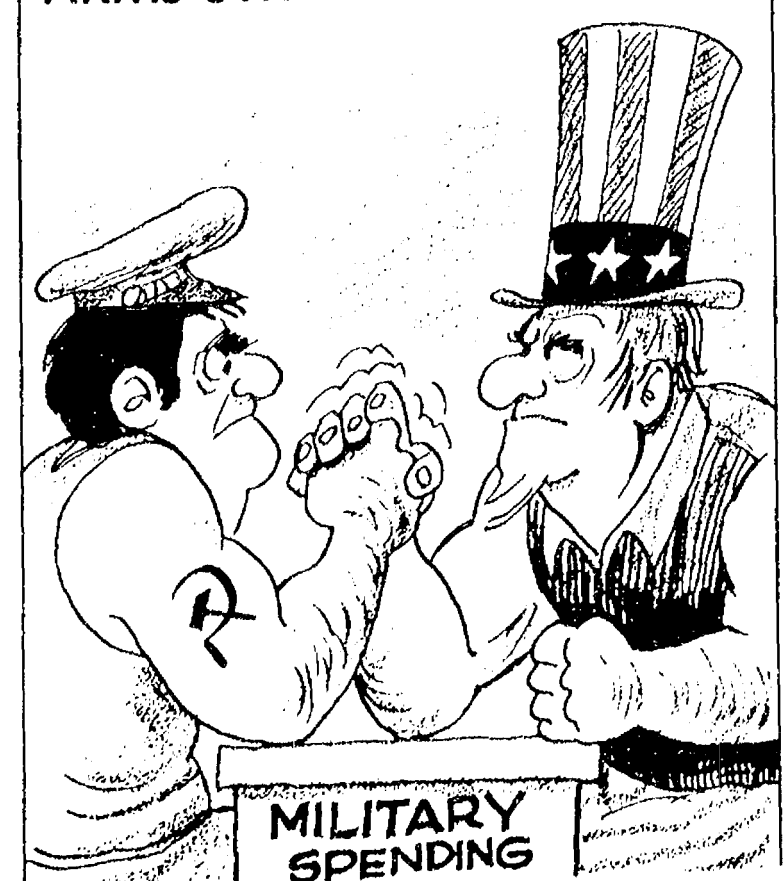

The gremlins worked again last week...we don't know what is happening, but they are getting into the type too much...last week the picture of Marie Cason was left behind and at 6 o'clock in the morning and 80 miles away there is no time to come back after it...we offer our apologies to Marie and the Grayling State Bank, where the picture was to run in their ad for its absence.

There are some people who will do most anything to get their name in our column...last Friday we happened to meet Jack and Doris from Frederic town, and after visiting a minute Doris had the gall to ask where and if we ever worked...all we hope is that Milliman and MacVay pass over this and may we add...Jack must have the patience of Job...

We have to mention here about the painting on the back of the Grayling Mercantile...it is beautiful and depicts the era when the Merc began in business...for our readers, take time and look it over...

This just about takes care of this turkey on Memorial Day...these two Sundays in a row sort of throws the ol' fella...we're headed home to the back yard to watch the orioles...some people put hay out for the deer...our bride has put about two sacks of oranges out to help the birds while they are nesting...we're not the only one that likes orange pop...

Our city park system is now well equipped with hose and sprinklers and all are being kept busy. The new park lots have been nicely seeded to good lawn seed and it is beginning to come out. What up to this week was nicely leveled but barren land will, in a few days, be a bright green carpet of grass. The Delight of Distress

"Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou has enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer." Psalm 4:1 How many times do we think of distress as a time for enlargement or growth as a person?

Today our nation is living in a time of distress. Our problems seem to be growing almost daily. We are being crushed economically by inflation. Russia moves closer to attempted world control as her military might mounts. The moral fiber of our people is shattered with increased abortions, sex outside of marriage, scandals in both government and business, racial violence, ecology problems, energy problems, alcohol and drug problems, growing mental and emotional problems, growing dishonesty and distrust between people, and the end is nowhere in sight.

Will our present distress be a blessing or a curse? Will we be developed or defeated by these many problems? It depends upon the direction you and I as citizens of the United States of America decide to take. You and I can have personal victory and delight in the face of distress. We can ask God to use the growing pressures to help make us better Christians. We can learn anew to appreciate the simple things in life; as one old song goes, "The Best Things in Life are Free." Instead of paying bureaucrats to plan every detail of our lives for us, it is time to demand more freedom of choice, and to be willing to accept responsibility that goes with that freedom of choice. Wouldn't it be better to risk death to live in dignity and freedom than to exist in bureaucratic slavery from the cradle to the grave?

We need to remember that, "righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." Proverbs 14:34. The psalmist knew this when he prayed, "Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness..." He knew God to be the source of righteousness. The past exaltation of our nation is firmly rooted in the moral fiber of our forefathers who owed their righteousness to God and His Word.

Our response today should be the closing part of the verse, "...have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer." Psalm 4:1c. We as a nation have sinned collectively against the righteousness of God, and we must plead for His mercy. Mercy is God not giving us the punishment we rightfully deserve for our sin. The evidence is strong that the wrath of God is already moving upon our beloved nation. May God help us to turn to Him that we may be able to say, "...thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress..." (adv.)

Pastor Barnett

"Make sure your car insurance protects you in 'no-fault' states."

"If you're planning on a long trip by car, chances are, you'll be driving through states with 'no-fault' insurance laws.

"If you're covered by an Auto-Owners policy, you can relax. Auto-Owners provides protection automatically under its bodily injury and property damage liability coverage in 'no-fault' states.

"This kind of far-sighted protection is just one of the reasons we recommend Auto-Owners Insurance to the people we serve."

Auto-Owners Insurance is for auto owners, too.

Bits O'Talk

By Fay Bevee

Julie Glisan, 8-month-old daughter of Gary and Rhea Glisan of Augsburg, Germany, was christened on Saturday afternoon, May 24, 1980, at United Methodist Michelson Memorial Church, Grayling, Rev. George Spencer officiated before a group of friends. Following the ceremony, everyone was invited to the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stripe, for refreshments and an afternoon of visiting before Gary, Rhea, and Julie returned to Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Davenport have returned to Grayling after spending six months at their home in Coco, Fla. Rowena did a lot of fishing this winter so seafood was plentiful at the Davenport home. On their return here they visited his sons, Ted Davenport and family at Lake Orion and Bruce Davenport and family at Flint, and her son and family, Larry and Connie Trowbridge and children in Midland. On Sunday, Rev. and Mrs. Puffer of Spencer were dinner guests.

New of Good Things Growing...

Fresh, ripe red Michigan strawberries, one of the many good things growing in Michigan, will begin appearing at grocery stores and markets about the first week of June.

These delicious berries are excellent for shortcakes, pies, preserves, jams and scrumptious desserts, like fresh strawberry mousse.

Crush one pint Michigan strawberries and drain the juice, reserved. Add enough water to the juice to make one and one-half cups. Bring juice to a boil and stir in two three-ounce packages strawberry flavored gelatin; dissolve and cool. Add strawberries and one-quarter cup sugar. Whip one pint whipping cream until it stands in soft peaks and fold into strawberry mixture. Pour mixture into a two-quart ring mold. Chill several hours or overnight before serving.

An estimated 13,500,000 pounds of strawberries were harvested in Michigan last year from 2,500 acres of land, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Fresh market sales accounted for about $4.6 million of the total $6,619,000 crop.

Michigan has many 'strawberry patches' for pick-your-own enthusiasts. When harvesting, pinch off only the stem leaving the cap attached to seal in natural juices. Refrigerate berries unwashed until just before serving. (Washing berries before storing removes the natural protective outer layer.) Wash berries before removing caps so water won't get into the berry and dilute the flavor or change the texture.

When choosing strawberries at the field or in your local market, be sure the berries are ripe. Berries with white tips will not ripen after picking. Berries which are dull in appearance and lack aroma are overripe and less flavorful.

For a listing of more than 1,000 pick-your-own farms and roadside markets, write for a free copy of "1980 Michigan Country Carousell" from the Michigan Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 30017, Lansing, 48909.

Thaw-N-Serve

To preserve the color of frozen fruits, thaw fruit in its sealed container and serve as soon as thawed. A few ice crystals in the fruit improve texture when eaten raw.

"Grayling's Own" at AT-80

Story and photos
by CPT Tim Everett

Annual Training for 1980 is over for the more than 300 Guardsmen and women who form the 3 units known as Grayling, "hometowners."

AT-80 was a big success for these modern militiamen as they accomplished all their major goals for this year. For Headquarters, Camp Grayling, this meant making sure everything ran smoothly. All directorates which make up the Headquarters - Maintenance, Operations (Range Control), Logistics, Facility Engineer and the Support Battalion reported satisfaction with the way projects were planned, developed and completed.

The major goal of the 1071st Maintenance Company was to insure that all personnel assigned received good, solid MOS (Military Occupational Specialty) training. This was achieved in the same manner of hard work and cooperation which has made this unit one of the finest maintenance units in the entire National Guard structure.

The 1438th Engineer Detachment had 3 goals this AT. Build a 1,350 feet long chain link fence at the Airfield, work on the Lewiston Grade to improve trafficability and drainage and refurbish a number of bathhouses in the 600 area of Camp were all goals and were met in a timely and highly professional manner. A historical note on the Lewiston Grade project-Engineers building a new culvert on a small stream found they were not the first to try and solve the water problems in that area.

A number of 1 1/2 foot square hemlock logs of probably 1900 vintage were found in the same spot. These hand-hewn logs had formed a culvert during the logging railroad days and as reported by the Guardsmen doing the present work, were in very good condition.

How did the Guardsmen and women themselves feel about this years Annual Training? Everyone I talked to had nothing but good things to say about the way everyone had pitched in to complete all missions assigned. Even the weather cooperated!

And the bosses were equally as pleased. "Our emphasis this year," commented LTC David Hanson, Support Battalion Commander, "was on MOS training for each member of the Battalion. We were able to accomplish that in that every member of this command was able to work in his or her job. I feel the last 2 weeks has been very successful."

COL J.R. Lippert, Commander of Camp Grayling had this to say. "The Army National Guard units stationed at Camp Grayling have just completed a highly successful two weeks of training. Their work is a great help to the Camp's permanent party in preparing the housing and equipment for other troops starting their encampments in June. Our ARNG units are composed of highly dedicated and trained men and women from this area and all over Northern Michigan. They will be ready if ever called upon to help defend our country."

Assigned To Florida Air Base

San Antonio, Texas—Airman Loren A. Williams, son of Loretta L. Tobin of Grayling, has been assigned to Corry Field, Fla., after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, here, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman will now receive specialized training in the intelligence field.

Airman Williams is a 1979 graduate of Grayling High School.

His father, Albert J. Williams, resides on Route 3, Grayling.

TOTAL FORCE is a term used to describe the relationship between the various active and reserve components of the Armed Forces. It means everyone pulling together, regardless of full or part-time status. 1LT Keith Bobenmoyer, commander of the 1071st, (right) gets some advice on the day's activities from CPT Jeffery Rae, an Ordnance Branch advisor from the U.S. Army's Readiness Group, Selfridge. 1LT Bobenmoyer is a resident of Grayling and works for the Guard full-time as the Camp's Operations and Training Specialist.

TODAY'S ARMY NEEDS a lot of fuel to keep going. SSG Milford Moggo of Roscommon works on fuel allocations to insure that it does keep going. SSG Moggo is a Petroleum Specialist in the Logistics Directorate both full and part-time. He has worked for Camp Grayling 20 years this month.

FIRE IS A CONSTANT threat to Camp Grayling and the surrounding community. SGT Kevin Lloyd of Lewiston (left) and SGT Roger Green of Grayling are ready to respond to any fire on the Camp, be it residential or forest. Both men, while they are on Annual Training now as part of the Facility Engineer's Office, spend the remaining 6 months at the Camp on full-time training duty.

POW! BOOM! HOLY MAINTENANCE, BAT MAN, someone has painted the Batmobile O.D.! Not really, Robin. That strange looking vehicle, known to the 1071st Maintenance Company as the Batmobile, is just a self contained machine shop assigned the unit for precision machining of one-of-a-kind parts.

Now I know why it's called baby fat. Every time our doctor tells me to go on a diet --- I cry like a baby.

"CROOKED TREE" AUTHOR HERE—Robert C. Wilson, author of "Crooked Tree" was at the Grayling Mercantile on Saturday, discussing his new book and autographing copies for friends and visitors. Movie rights have already been purchased for the novel, which depicts the story of northern Michigan rampaging black bears who are believed by Ottawa Indians to be controlled by evil spirits.

Wilson is the great-grandson of Nels Michelson, former Grayling lumberman, grandson of Alex Michelson, lumberman and Grayling realtor, and son of Andrew F. and Jean (Michelson) Wilson, long-time summer residents. Mr. Wilson wrote most of the novel at his parent's summer home at Lake Margrethe. He is pictured here discussing his book with Carol Wieber of Grayling. (Joe Schrader photo)

The conference will begin with registration, followed by the invocation given by Pastor Paul Weber of Mt. Hope Lutheran Church. Films will be shown during the buffet luncheon break. An afternoon speaker will be Betty Gurnea of Right to Life of Michigan. Pastor Robert Barnett of Calvary Baptist Church will give the benediction.

The registration fee of $12.00 includes the buffet luncheon. There is a special rate of $6.00 for senior citizens and students. For further information telephone 348-2297.

OUTDOOR PERFORMERS—The GHS Jazz Band, under the direction of Robert A. Harris, braved the elements last Saturday to perform outdoors for visitors and shoppers to Grayling's downtown area. Free will donations will go to the Senior Class and to purchase needed band equipment. Grayling State Bank provided the accommodations. (Joe Schrader photo)

Any woman interested in breastfeeding is welcome; nursing babies are always welcome. For further information, or for breastfeeding help, call Gayle Willett at 275-8385 or Carolyn Crist at 275-8431.

Senior Citizen Homemaker Service

Homemaker Service is partially funded by Northeast Michigan Community Services, Inc., and is sponsored and administered by the Commission on Aging. The purpose of this program is to find and give aid to people in Crawford County, 60 years of age or older, who because of temporary conditions such as illness, injury or other handicaps and are unable to perform routine daily tasks. This may be preparing meals, washing dishes, changing bedding, vacuuming, dusting and other light household chores. There are no income restrictions and no charge to the client. However we do accept donations for this service. This allows us to do service for more Senior Citizens.

The Homemaker programs main function is to help people just released from the hospital while recuperating from surgery, prolonged illness, injury, arthritis or other handicaps. The purpose is to shorten their hospital time and prevent them from being placed in an institution if possible. We have no funds to provide Homemakers Services for Senior Citizens that have limited handicaps that prevent them from doing specific work, such as spring house-cleaning. As an example, you are able to do your regular chores, but not able to wash windows, walls, clean ovens or refrigerators. For additional information about these services please call Crawford County Senior Citizen Center, 348-9314.

Now that the days are longer and you have that great feeling of spring fever, maybe you have a few hours that you would like to volunteer some time to help with these services. We also need your comments and ideas to help us serve you better.

Completes N.G. Armor Training

Fort Knox, Ky.—National Guard Pvt. Kerry M. Korhonen, son of Mrs. Sandra B. Korhonen, 608 Chestnut St., Grayling, recently completed training as an armor crewman under the One Station Unit Training (OSUT) Program at the U.S. Army Armor School, Fort Knox, Ky.

OSUT is a 13-week period which combines basic combat training with advanced individual training.

During the training, students learn the duties of a tank crewman, including the firing of the tank's armament and small weapons. They also receive instruction in field radio operations, map reading and tank maintenance and repair.

Korhonen's father, Gerald F. Korhonen, lives at 311 Calvert Drive, Clarksville, Tenn.

NENE'S NOOK OPENS—Friends, neighbors and area officials gathered downtown last Friday to participate in ribbon-cutting ceremonies at Nene's Nook, which relocated to its new home on Michigan Avenue in the former Avalanche Building.

Memorial Day was the first anniversary for the downtown business which was formerly located in the Francois Gift annex. Chet and Nene Fijolek are owner-operators of the business, which opened in May of 1979 and grew from the sale of antiques to include maternity and queen size fashions in just seven short months.

Vike Runners 3rd in Conference Meet

By Joe Schrader

Lisa Radebaugh and Diane Lee raced to hurdles-event wins in leading Grayling to a third place finish in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference track meet held last Thursday at Petoskey.

The host Northmen topped the eight-team field with 99½ points to finish just ahead of Cheboygan with 95½ and Grayling's 93. Coach Marilee Cheney said Friday the outcome of the meet was still up for grabs going into the last event, the mile relay. The Vikes held a slim, 1½ point lead going into the race when officials disqualified the Grayling effort despite a third place finish in the event. Coach Cheney was happy with her team's performance, which she called indicative of a real group effort. "We only won two events, but we placed in all others but three," she said, "and that shows real team balance and effort."

Radebaugh was clocked at 16.18 seconds in winning the 110 hurdles and Diane Lee copped the 220 hurdles in 32.83 seconds, "both fine times" said Coach Cheney.

Second place finishes went to Jean Stevens in the 440 in 1:02.7, her best time of the year, and to Diane Lee in the 110 hurdles, Beth Jones in the one and two mile runs and Lisa Radebaugh in the long jump.

Grayling's 880 relay team of Jill Headlee, Karen Hanson, Shelly Peterson and Lisa Radebaugh took a third as did Karen Hanson in the disc and Diane Savallisch in the shot put.

Also winning points for Grayling were Beth Jones, 4th in the 880, Karen Hanson, 5th in the 220 hurdles and the 440 relay team of Jill Headlee, Joyce Stevens, Shelly Peterson and Lisa Radebaugh finished sixth.

Other league schools competing and their order of finish included St. Ignace (84), Gaylord (43), Rogers City (31), Boyne City (12) and Charlevoix (5).

The team ended the year with one of its best records ever. The squad was 4-0 in conference action and 6-0 overall in dual and triangular meet competition and finished high in the relay and invitational events they traveled to this season.

GHS Junior Lisa Radebaugh was the lone Viking winner Monday of last week when the squad competed in the Petoskey Relays. She raced to victory in the 110-yd. hurdles in a meet Coach Marilee Cheney called "a good warmup for the conference meet." Twenty-four teams in all classes competed with Grayling finishing 2nd behind Traverse City St. Francis in the team totals with 40 points. St. Francis concluded the day with 42.

The 110-yd. hurdles and mile run were the only events scheduled in the meet which for the most part featured a variety of relay events. The individual events included competition from all classes.

Grayling's Beth Jones finished fifth in the mile and the Viking relay teams copped a second place finish in Class C competition.

With regular track action now completed, six team members will turn their attention to Saturday, May 31st when they compete in the Class C State Finals at Cassopolis. Beth Jones, Lisa Radebaugh and Jean Stevens will make the trip to the Finals after qualifying in the Regionals May 17th. Radebaugh will also run with the other members of the 880-yd. relay team, Jill Headlee, Karen Hanson and Shelly Peterson, whose 2nd place finish at Benzonia earned them a berth in the state finals.

Alumni News

Friday, May 23 was a good day for us. We gave two Scholarships—one to Mark Whaley and one to Susan Somerville. Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whaley, Valedictorian of his class. He will attend Michigan Tech in Engineering.

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dice. She was 6th in her class and will attend Hope College in Pre-Med Pediatrics. It was coincidental that Susan was chosen as recipient of the R.O. Milnes Award for "Best All Around Good Citizen of the Senior Class of 1980", by her teachers and we had chosen her for one of our Scholarships. That is quite a tribute. Randy Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Patterson, was awarded the "Carl W. Borchers Scholarship". He will attend the University of Cincinnati in Aeronautical Engineering. We are privileged to be a part of their futures.

I have had several inquiries this Spring from Alumni who need help with their Reunion listings. I am sorry to say—we do not get the updated lists after Reunions. For some reason those calls remain separate from the Alumni Association. I have tried for years to get this information in our files—no luck. This is an interesting quote from a popular column, "Dear Ann Landers: I'm writing in an effort to prevent people from missing a wonderful time. I am talking about High School Reunions. It's impossible to get in touch with every graduate—especially the way they move around. The best way not to miss out is for the graduate to contact the High School and find out who is in charge. In other words, don't expect the Reunion Chairman to find you—Write a letter and find the chairman." End of quote. We are fortunate we have an Alumni Office that most of you know about. Use it. Address, 403 Mich. Ave., Grayling, Mi. 49738.

Congratulations to Bill Klinger—the Year Book was dedicated to him this year. They made a good choice—Bill does a full job at the High School, coaching and counseling. As usual, I thoroughly enjoyed the whole program at the High School. Education is not dead. There are so many students eager to learn.

THANK YOU

It is difficult to thank an entire community, but because the kindnesses extended to me and my family during my recent illness were so numerous, a public "thank you" is certainly in order.

To the nursing staff of Mercy Hospital and Dr. Blaha for the compassion and excellent care, thank you.

To the countless friends, organizations, and businesses who sent cards, flowers, and offered assistance to my family, I cannot thank you enough.

To Rev. Spencer and the congregation of Michelson Memorial Methodist Church, to Rev. Dawson and the congregation of St. Francis Episcopal Church, to Father Neis and the congregation of St. Mary's Catholic Church, for your prayers, a humble thank you.

I've heard much of community service in recent weeks. I can only say that whatever service I may have rendered has been returned to me and my family ten fold.

You are fine people, and to all of you who have helped me, I am forever indebted.

Move Toward Federal Land Use

Last week I reported on the 2.2 million acres of land in Idaho that the House voted to include in the RARE II Wilderness plan. At that time no legislation had been introduced affecting the proposed set-asides in Michigan.

Late in the week, Rep. Bob Carr of East Lansing introduced a bill (H.R. 7156) setting aside far more land in the Upper Peninsula as wilderness than even the U.S. Forest Service had recommended.

The Forest Service recommendations included 35,093 acres in the Ottawa National Forest and 16,162 acres in the Hiawatha National Forest. This bill proposes to set aside 50,900 acres in the Ottawa National Forest and 36,490 in the Hiawatha National Forest, for a total of 36,135 acres more than was requested. The legislation recommends 17,000 acres in the McCormick tract on the Marquette-Baraga Counties' border that was never even included in the Forest Service's RARE II study. It also recommends three tracts in the Hiawatha National Forest; Rock River Canyon in Alger County, Big Island Lake in Schoolcraft County, and Delirium in Chippewa County, which were recommended for non-wilderness designation by the Forest Service.

A wilderness designation constitutes the strictest of controls on property. The land must be totally untouched, and there are strict guidelines governing the area surrounding the wilderness also. In my opinion, wilderness discourages both industry and tourism. The area cannot be developed for recreational purposes, and it seems unlikely to me that any family would want to bring children somewhere they couldn't drive to—an area without campsites, or any kind of recreational areas.

Federal wilderness designation constitutes federal land use control, and I staunchly oppose that philosophy. However, I am afraid it will be an uphill battle trying to stop the proposed wilderness designations in our area. The House approved the Idaho proposal on a vote of 301 to 93, despite the opposition of the majority of Idaho's delegation.

Nevertheless, I plan to do everything in my power to try to stop any wilderness set-asides in Northern Michigan. I have written to the chairman of the subcommittee studying the RARE II bills, and requested a hearing on the proposal be held in Northern Michigan. I will keep you posted of any further developments.

Tasty Red

Nobody knows why, but huge Galapagos tortoises will eat any food that is red, and as a result, when zoo keepers want to feed one of these tortoises a pill, they hide it in a tomato, according to National Geographic World magazine.

Southworth Completes Gen-Tel Course

Jerry Southworth, switchperson for General Telephone at Grayling, recently completed a course in Step-by-Step Switch and Relay Adjustment at the company's training center in Muskegon, according to Lois Reagan, northern division manager.

The objective of the 10-day course is to enable students to adjust switches and relays. When a customer dials a telephone number, switches and relays housed in a "central" office automatically operate to complete the customer's call. Students learn to operate "test sets" and analyze various functions of the equipment.

Mr. Southworth resides in Grayling with his wife.

Gas Tax Revenues Down in First Quarter

Crawford County will receive $311,893.49 in fuel sales revenue for highway and roadwork and other transportation programs for the first quarter of 1980, down about 5% from the same period last year. The 1979 first quarter revenue amounted to $325,698.

The Michigan Department of Transportation announced last week that sales of gasoline and diesel fuel recorded the steepest decline since gas shortages and rationing sent consumption into a tailspin during World War II. Gas sales decreased nearly 12 percent from the first quarter of 1979 and diesel fuel sales declined by 14.8 percent.

Department analysts attributed the sales drop to the declining economy, the continuing rise of fuel prices and growing popularity of lighter-weight, fuel-efficient automobiles.

"Michigan's highway, road and other transportation programs face tough times in the months and years ahead," said Department Director John P. Woodford. "Our national effort to reduce motor fuel consumption is succeeding, but it is also cutting sharply into revenues available for transportation, this at a time when costs are going up 15 to 20 percent a year." A 70 percent cutback in federal aid for highway, road and street work scheduled in Michigan during the next five months was slashed from $188 million to $57 million.

Neighboring counties and their shares of the fuel revenues included Kalkaska, $377,617.28; Otsego, $382,992.70; Roscommon, $394,639.58.

Last week's report also released the figures for shares going to cities. Grayling's total was $19,923, down from $21,073 in 1979. Gaylord received $28,584, Kalkaska $19,146 and Roscommon $9,574.

Together, the state, counties and municipalities maintain more than 116,000 miles of highways, roads and streets.

RICHARD MILLIMAN

WE ALL KNEW 1980 was going to be a screwy political year. Presidential election years always are a bit off-center, anyway. But very few could have foreseen all of the odd developments of this particular election season.

Whatever happened to John Connally, for example? He looked and acted more like a president than anyone around, and he lined up more dollar support—the lifeblood of any campaign—than any other two candidates put together. Yet Mr. Connally dropped by the wayside early on.

Whatever happened to Ted Kennedy, for another example? Mr. Kennedy, the darling of the media, and the liberal wing of his party, the owner of a magic name and magic heritage, could have anything in the political area just for the asking. So he asked, and was denied...time and time again.

Who could have figured Connally and Kennedy, for two examples, would perform as they did?

AND HOW about all the other also-rans, especially among the Republicans? And how about the birth and growth of Rep. John Anderson as a serious, viable, logical alternative? And how about the complete, utter dominance of Ronald Reagan over the Republican nominating apparatus? Who could have figured these developments?

And how about the control of President Carter, even more complete in his Democratic party than Reagan's hold over his Republicans? Beset with foreign troubles, and economic troubles, and political troubles, who would have predicted Carter's pre-eminence as a politician?

And yet, the American people apparently aren't content with how things have developed. Mr. Reagan, among Republicans, and Mr. Carter, among Democrats, appear to have produced unassailable fortresses; the people of the country, who have participated in the nominating process so far, should be satisfied, even ecstatic. Yet they're restless.

It's all over but the shouting—Carter and Reagan. Or is it all over? Strange things have happened so far, and stranger things may happen yet. Don't bet against it.

ODD, UNLIKELY reports spread in politics, especially in an election year. For example, there is the recent newspaper item headlined: "Dump Carter! Democrats' talk of alternative candidate keeps spreading."

The article refers not to Sen. Kennedy, but rather to the unlikely prospect of a draft of Vice President Walter Mondale as an electable Democratic candidate. This notion is based on the idea that Mr. Carter in November can't win.

Mr. Mondale, of course, would attract all the same supporters who now hold out for Mr. Kennedy; in addition, Mondale certainly has built credibility among the Carter wing of the party.

The idea makes sense in every way except one: The Man in the White House certainly won't step aside willingly.

THEN THERE are other newspaper reports spreading the idea that Reagan invincibility at the November election would be enhanced by the appearance of Gerald Ford on the ticket.

Regular readers of this column know I think this would be a good idea if Ford headed the ticket instead of Reagan; but the emerging thought is to put Ford on the ticket along with Reagan, namely as a vice presidential candidate.

Ford would add experience and stability to the Reagan ticket, so the story goes, along with bridging the gap to those Republicans who still find a tough time accepting Reagan as their standard-bearer.

Although it seems a step-down for Mr. Ford, reports are that he would consider the plan, being the staunch party soldier he is, and might feel it would help the country so he will go along and help any way he can. Of course, both Reagan and Ford now live in California which might present some constitutional problem.

But in this crazy political year of 1980, anything can happen. A lot already has. Don't rule out anything, no matter how improbable it may sound at first blush.

Township Officials to Meet in Grayling

Over 150 township officials from Antrim, Kalkaska, Crawford, Missaukee, Roscommon, Emmet, Otsego, Charlevoix, Cheboygan, and Presque Isle Counties are expected to attend a Michigan Townships Association District Meeting on May 30, 1980, at Holiday Inn, Grayling, according to Michael Barnett Supervisor, Presque Isle Township.

"The District Meeting is an important part of every township official's efforts to gain further expertise in the duties of his or her office," Barnett stated. "It is also an excellent opportunity to discuss current issues with state officials," he added.

Included as speakers at the upcoming meeting are Gary Buckberry and Laura Pieper of the Office of Intergovernmental Relations, Michigan Department of Management and Budget, who will present an analysis of the various property tax reform proposals facing voters in November.

Also participating will be Wayne McKenna and Joe Hull from the Division of Emergency Medical Services, Michigan Department of Public Health, who will explain ambulance and rescue service operation rules and statutes.

The newly formed Michigan Mobile Home Commission, Department of Commerce, will be represented by Steve Zamara, Commission Director. The Mobile Home Commission's recently developed rules governing on-site requirements of mobile home parks will be discussed, as well as mobile home taxation and valuation assessment issues.

Larry Holcomb of the Resource Recovery Section, and Tim Wright of the Waste Management Planning Section, representing the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, will explain financial assistance to townships for planning solid waste management and implementing landfills or resource recovery systems.

Local property assessors will have an opportunity to attend a three-hour state certification renewal program, conducted by Barbara Christensen, Executive Secretary of the State Assessors Board, Department of Treasury.

Other programs offered include:

Craig Hinkle Earns Multi-List Award

Craig Hinkle, Sales Associate for Ski and Shore Realty Company of Grayling, was named top salesman for the month of May in a contest among real estate firms participating in multi-list advertising. It was a third month in a row Hinkle earned the honor.

Monthly winners are selected through their overall real estate sales activities during the month. Sales closing, real estate listing and property sale offers are among the factors used to determine the winner.

Thirty-five Sales Associates participate each month from seven Grayling Real Estate Companies, including Century 21, Real Estate I, Cornell Realty, Clough Realty, Statewide, Milltown Realty and Ski and Shore.

Points earned each month go toward the selection of the Salesman of the Year Award, which will be made at the end of the year.

John Harland of Milltown Realty Company was the January winner.

clude local government accounting, cash management and public personnel administration.

The Michigan Townships Association (MTA) conducts District Meetings annually at 19 sites across the state. 1,225 townships are members of MTA, which represents over 7,000 township officials throughout Michigan.

Over on the south side, Helen Harwood has had a yard full of beautiful tulips. We'll be looking forward to the summer flowers there.

The Grayling Mercantile back yard painting seems to be complete. A bit of nostalgia—it reminds me of the former Merc store with the lovely old front windows.

One of my readers said I should mention our own flowers, which I will do. We've had a nice display of daffodils and now the creeping phlox are really showing off this year.

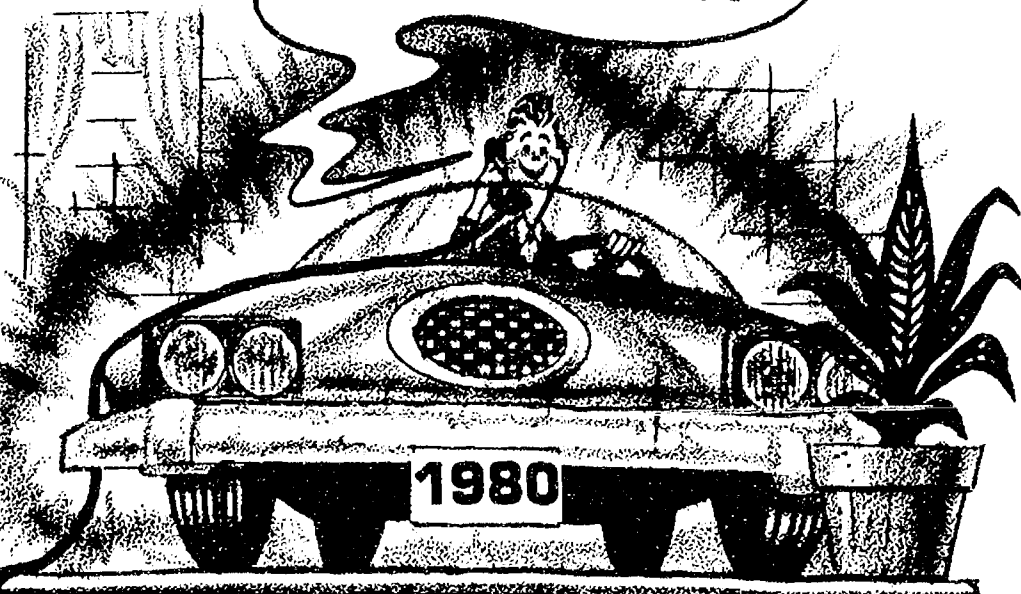

COURTHOUSE CEREMONIES—Shown above is a group of sheriff's department deputies, city patrol officers and other police personnel at swearing-in ceremonies held May 9th at the Courthouse. Volunteer School Aides Honored

Over 40 Volunteer School Aides were honored last Thursday by school officials at a noon luncheon at the Hotel Shoppe-nagon.

School principals awarded certificates to the volunteers, who together have donated almost 150 years of volunteer service to Crawford-AuSable students.

School Superintendent Dr. William Diedrich thanked the volunteers for their efforts, telling them "they rank at the top of the list" for their help in providing quality education to students in the district.

Matilda Paulsen, with nine years service and Alice Moore with eight, received special recognition for their longevity in the program and received floral centerpieces from Dr. Diedrich.

In his opening remarks, Pete Ingvarsson, State & Federal Programs Director, welcomed the volunteers who he said "are already there when called." Jeanie Sloan and Marianne Knepp assisted in issuing the certificates.

Ingvarsson and Cheryl LaDuke, Title I Secretary, arranged the luncheon.

X MISCELLANEOUS

13. Conference Session.

Dr. Diedrich presented "The High Cost of Decline" to the Board of Education members and audience. This report was a slide presentation explaining the high cost of educating our children today, even with declining enrollments facing school districts. One of the major problems associated with these costs is a loss of State Aid revenues for each pupil loss. This reduced State Aid puts the pressure on local taxation. While revenues are decreased, the costs of building operations, textbooks and supplies, salary increases and higher costs involved with insurance coverage for personnel keep rising.

Member Freddie Allen now present.

Dr. Diedrich and Paul Lerg reported on the latest County Equalization figures. It was explained that the district's preliminary 1980-81 school district budget was built on County estimates of an approximate 15% increase in property values. The administration and members of the board Finance Committee were therefore shocked when, at a recent meeting of a County Allocation Board, it was revealed that the increases in property values would be only 7.43% for the 1980-81 school year. Mr. Lerg reported that earlier in the day he had attended the State Tax Commission meeting in Lansing where property values of the entire state were reviewed. In spite of a 13.96% increase in property values for the entire state, the Crawford County figures were not adjusted. Dr. Diedrich explained to the Board that with the lower property assessments, the district now faces a deficit of over $200,000. for the upcoming school year. This loss, combined with a potential reduction in state aid for both this year and next year, places the district in a difficult financial position. He concluded by stating that the district has no alternative but to seek an increased millage rate from the County Allocation Board. Instead of the original .4 of a mill requested from this body, the district will now be seeking an increase of 2.1962 mills.

14. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, it was moved by Mickey Perez, seconded by Mary Allen, that this meeting be adjourned at 8:50 p.m. Motion carried; all ayes.

Around the World With Steve Rison

EDITORS NOTE—This is part three in a three part series covering Steve Rison's "Trip around the World".

Bangkok was another fast moving dirty city, better than Jakarta with more to do, but still having an oppressive air about it. The pedestrian is held with little regard and if you survive the traffic you feel accomplished. English is not widely spoken and as the Thai alphabet is something altogether different, it is difficult to figure things out on your own. As I didn't have enough time on my transit visa, I was unable to visit the northern hill tribes and thus spent 6 days in Bangkok. My days were spent sightseeing—Buddhist temples (where I met a monk who gave me a personalized tour), snake forms (lots of cobras), crocodile pits, numerous visits to the Burmese Embassy to obtain a visa, and trying to keep cool primarily. The temperature hovered around a humid 100 degrees most of the week.

When last Saturday rolled around I was ready and anxious to move on to Burma but unfortunately the temperature wasn't much cooler although less humid.

I've spent a week in Burma which is a most amazing, unusual and relatively untouched part of the world. A long train ride across miles and miles of dry dusty fields or barren desert brought me to Mandalay and then to Pagan to see remnants of civilizations dating back to the 11th century. The small villages interspersed about the massive temple ruins presented an amazing picture for the western eye and caused me to reflect in awe at my surroundings. Of all my South-east Asian experiences this place has impressed me as the most unusual and the most untouched. The people have been especially friendly and accepting, reflecting a very slow and deliberate yet hard life. Everyone seemed pretty happy and content.

Well, there you are, updated on my most recent wanderings. I'm happy to have experienced Southeast Asia but happy also to be moving on the Asia—and hopefully some cooler weather. Although no snow, it has, nevertheless, been a hard winter for me.

I'll leave Saturday (tomorrow) for Kathmandu, Nepal and will have my first glimpses of the Himalayas. From there it will be on to northern India, Pakistan and the Middle East as I begin the long trek towards Michigan.

Now if I can just keep my mind off of a roast turkey dinner and gather enough momentum to drag myself out of the air-conditioned American Embassy library (which is where I'm presently) I'll continue on. Have a beautiful spring—my best to all.

Sincerely,
"On the Road"
Rangoon, Burma

THINK REYE'S

THE STAGES OF REYE'S SYNDROME

VIRAL DISORDER

The majority of cases of Reye's Syndrome are preceded by a viral disorder such as the flu or chicken pox, the effects of which last from a few days to one week. In some rare instances, Reye's Syndrome is not preceded by a virus infection, but starts abruptly.

RECOVERY PERIOD

There is a brief period of recovery from the original viral disorder lasting from a few hours to several days. During this time, the child is not unusually sick but not well either.

VOMITING

Violent, relentless vomiting is almost always the first serious sign of Reye's Syndrome, except in infants. The hands and feet may be cold and clammy. Temperature may be normal or even subnormal. The pupils may be dilated, that is, the dark part of the eye remains expanded even in bright light.

BEHAVIOR CHANGE

The child becomes irritable and negative, wanting to be left alone, and is unusually annoyed if anyone speaks to him or touches him. He may want to sleep all of the time, feeling very fatigued or simply "washed-out." He may be glassy-eyed with prolonged staring. Many parents describe a hostile look on their child's face and often they do become combative. During this period the child may also develop twitching and jerking movements (seizures).

DISORIENTATION

The child becomes generally confused, seemingly lost in time and space. For example, he may find his way into the bathroom but will not find his way out. He is able to carry out simple requests, such as "brush your teeth," only with the most deliberate and basic step-by-step instructions. This period can last a few minutes or several hours.

HOSTILITY

The child becomes generally hostile and unable to recognize family members and familiar surroundings. He is frequently combative and aggressive, kicking, lashing out and biting. He may moan and scream incessantly and abnormally, and no measure of reassurance will quiet him. He may demonstrate unusual strength. It may take several adults to restrain him.

COMA

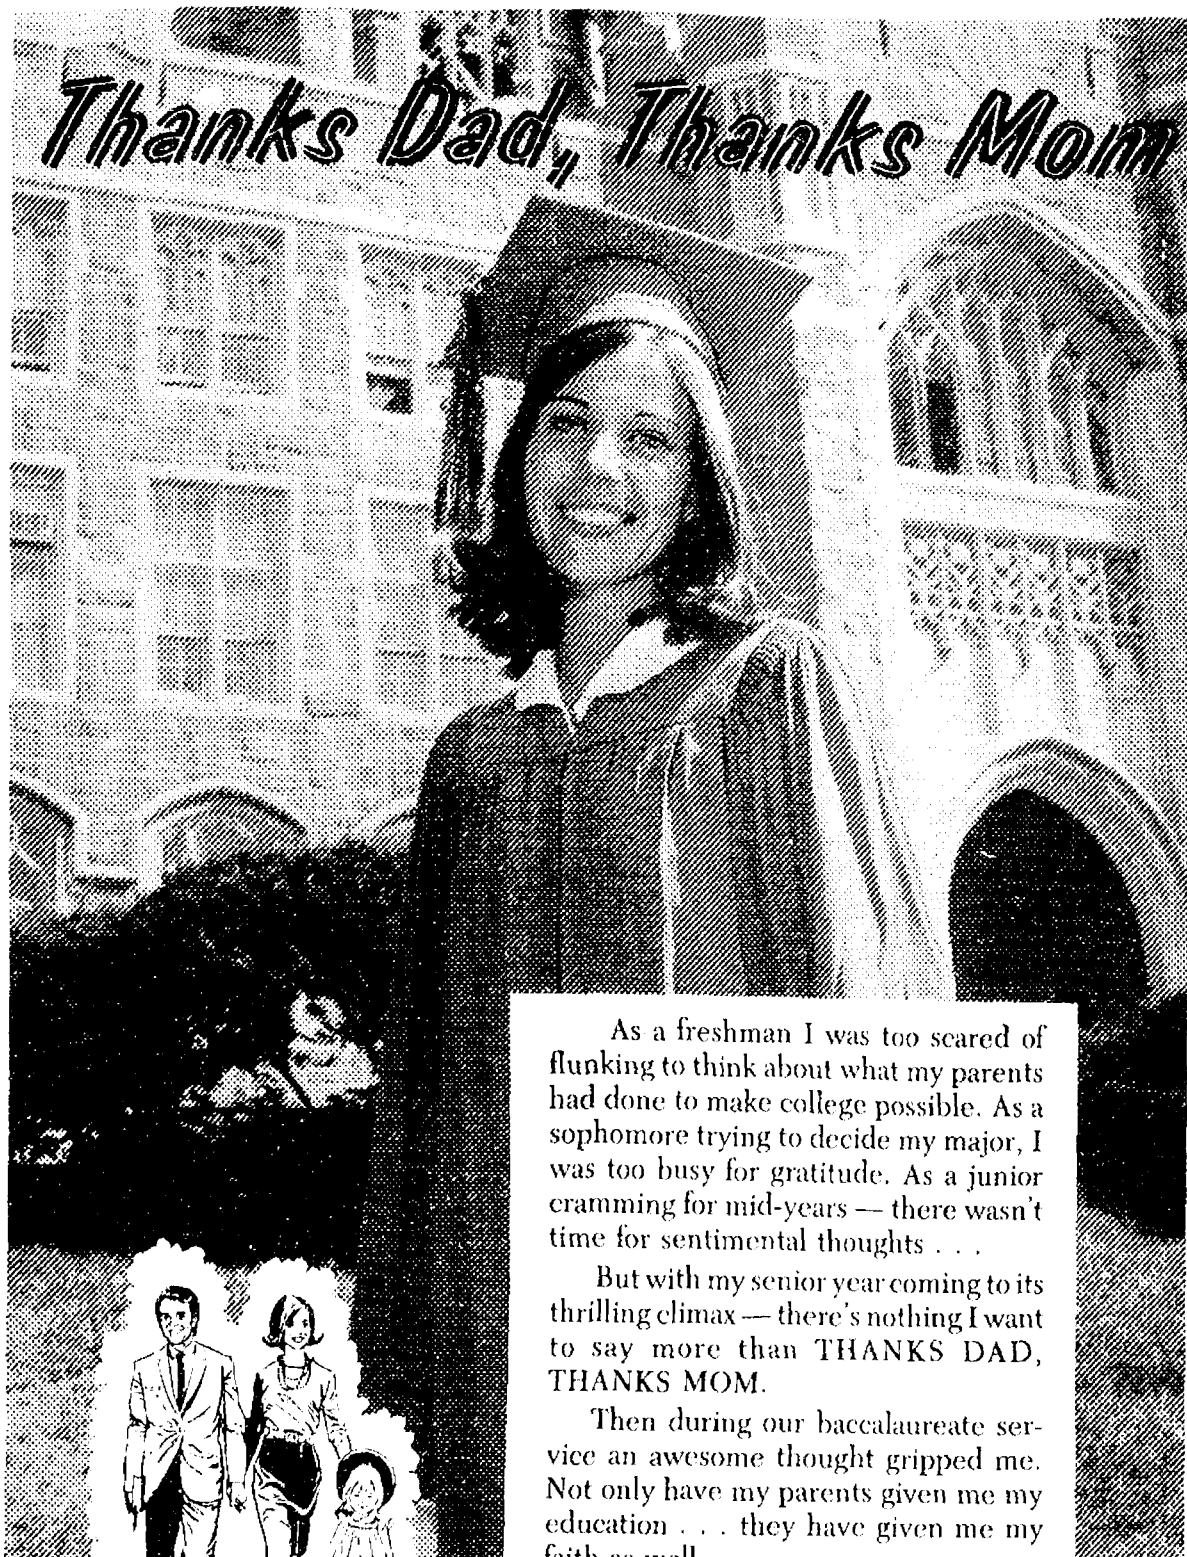

The child enters the semi-comatose state, responding sluggishly and only after vigorous prodding. Soon, deep coma develops with no response. Death, if it is to occur, follows usually as a result of swelling brain tissue, and this can occur the first day or as long as several weeks later.

Average time from the period of vomiting to death is 3 to 5 days. The above is the usual progression in cases of Reye's. However, symptoms, time intervals and sequence may vary.

THINK REYE'S

Keep this description of the symptoms of Reye's Syndrome handy on your bulletin board or with your medical records, so that you can refer to it if you are suspicious of this illness in your child or any child.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

As a freshman I was too scared of flunking to think about what my parents had done to make college possible. As a sophomore trying to decide my major, I was too busy for gratitude. As a junior cramming for mid-years — there wasn't time for sentimental thoughts . . .

But with my senior year coming to its thrilling climax — there's nothing I want to say more than THANKS DAD, THANKS MOM.

Then during our baccalaureate service an awesome thought gripped me. Not only have my parents given me my education . . . they have given me my faith as well.

My quest for a college degree began in nursery school and kindergarten. It was just about that time when these same wonderful parents brought me to what would soon become OUR CHURCH.

My quest for a strong, sure faith began where it does so often — in the BEGINNER'S Department.

Dear Whitey,
We would like to express our thanks to a new resident of this community, Charles McDaniels, for the generous donation of his time to our middle school art students. Mr. McDaniels is a professional artist who took time out from his work to talk to our students about painting techniques, about his life as a painter, about marketing art and other topics related to art. Our visits with him were informative and most beneficial to our students.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Lynn Thompson

- Side yards shall be at least thirty (30) feet.
- Front yards shall be at least fifty (50) feet.

(d) Setback from Water's Edge - because of the severe limitations for residential development due to poorly drained and unstable soils, high water tables and possible contamination of ground water supplies, no structures shall be constructed on D, E or F land classifications, or on lands subject to flooding.

Construction on land within A, B and C classifications must meet the following standards:

- Along the North Branch of the Ausable River, no buildings shall be constructed closer than two hundred (200) feet from the water's edge, except that for every foot of ground elevation above the minimum grade level (being four feet), five feet may be subtracted from the setback, to a minimum of one hundred fifty (150) feet from the water's edge.
- Along the other streams in the Green Belt Zone, no buildings shall be constructed closer than one hundred fifty (150) feet from the water's edge, except that for every foot of ground elevation above the minimum grade level, five feet may be subtracted from the setback, to a minimum of one hundred (100) feet.
- On all lakes, no building shall be constructed closer than two hundred (200) feet from the water's edge, except that for every foot of ground elevation above the minimum grade level, five feet may be subtracted from the setback to a minimum of one hundred fifty (150) feet.

(e) Further:

- New buildings and appurtenances must be setback at least fifty (50) feet from the top of the bluff on the cutting edge of the stream.
- New buildings and appurtenances must be setback at least twenty-five (25) feet from the top of a bluff, on the noncutting edge of the stream or on a lake.

(3) No building shall take place on land that is subject to flooding.

Section 5.6 - ACCESSORY STRUCTURES.

(a) Docks - A single dock per lot is permitted when it does not exceed twelve (12) feet in length, four feet in width and projects no more than four feet over the water as measured from the water's edge. Permanent docks may be erected only by permit issued by the Department of Natural Resources in accordance with the Inland Lakes and Streams Act of 1972, as amended.

(b) Pumphouse - One pumphouse housing a pump used for pumping water out of the river is permitted when it is setback at least five feet from the water's edge, has a ground covered area not exceeding nine square feet, has a height not exceeding three feet, is located so as to prevent soil erosion and is screened from the river by natural vegetation.

Section 5.7 - PARKING, STORAGE OR USE OF MAJOR RECREATIONAL EQUIPMENT. Major recreational equipment, including but not limited to boats and boat trailers, travel trailers, pick-up campers or coaches (designed to be mounted on automotive vehicles), and other plans or structures, shall be used for permanent living or housekeeping purposes when parked or stored on a lot. These vehicles, with the exception of those boats stored in permitted bathhouses, shall be stored landward of the waterfront setback line.

Section 5.8 - USE OF NATURAL BUILDING MATERIALS. It is encouraged that natural materials such as wood and stone and natural muted colors be used in the construction of buildings and structures, and also be used in the erection or alteration of the exterior of all structures, whether temporary or permanent, and especially in docks and riverbank stabilization structures.

Section 5.9 - NATURAL VEGETATION STRIP. To minimize erosion, stabilize the shoreline, protect water quality, keep nutrients out of the water, maintain water temperature at natural levels, preserve fish and wildlife habitat, to screen man-made structures, and also to preserve aesthetic values of the area, a natural vegetation strip shall be maintained. Along the North Branch of the Ausable River, the natural vegetation strip shall extend seventy-five (75) feet from the water's edge, while on the other areas in the Green Belt Zone, the strip shall extend fifty (50) feet. Within the natural vegetation strip, trees and shrubs may be selectively pruned or removed for harvest of merchantable timber, to achieve a filtered view of the river or lake from the principal structure and for reasonable private access to the water. Said pruning and removal activities:

- Shall insure a live root system stays intact to provide for bank stabilization and erosion control, and
- Shall insure that any path to the water is no greater than ten feet in width, shall meander down to the water's edge in a manner which protects the soil and vegetation from erosion while also screening the principal structure and vehicles from a direct view.

Dead, diseased, unsafe or fallen trees and noxious plants and shrubs, including poison ivy, poison sumac and poison oak, and other plants considered as a common nuisance, shall be removed. Section 347 of 1941, as amended, may be removed. Planting of perennial native species in the natural vegetation strip is encouraged, and if severely exposed soil and steep slopes exist, and in reforestation efforts.

Section 5.10 - USE OF PESTICIDES, HERBICIDES AND FERTILIZERS. Because of the potentially severe adverse effects on water, vegetation, fish, wildlife and water quality from improper use of even small amounts of pesticides, herbicides and fertilizers, use on lands within the Green Belt area is strongly discouraged except when utilized in accord with the advice and supervision of qualified specialists.

Section 5.11 - LAND ALTERATION. Grading or filling on F lands or on lands subject to flooding, and filling for building on D and E lands, is prohibited. Where it is necessary to fill D or E lands to provide access to an area subject to flooding, A, B or C lands, the zoning administrator may authorize fill only upon a finding that:

- All fill is located beyond the building setbacks as described in Section 5.5(d).
- Fill material is of a pervious material such as gravel or sand.
- Such fill will not lead to increased flood levels, either upstream or downstream.
- The fill, construction and continued use of the facility will not lead to accelerated erosion or material degradation of the water resource.
- Approval is granted by the local soil erosion and sedimentation control officer as required by Act 347 of the Public Acts of 1972, as amended.

Section 5.12 - SANITARY WASTE SYSTEMS. Disposal field and septic tanks shall be no closer than one hundred fifty (150) feet to the water's edge. The disposal field tile shall be at least four and one-half feet above the high water table. Field tile trench bottoms shall be at least four feet above high water table.

Section 5.13 - SUB SOIL DRAINAGE SYSTEMS. No soil systems shall be nearer than forty (40) feet to any sub soil drainage system (footing drains) emptying directly into the water. (Septic drain fields and dry wells must be at least one hundred (100) feet from the drain. Any question - see Health Department.)

Section 5.14 - NOTIFICATION OF DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES. A copy of each application for a special use permit, or request regarding a non-conforming use, shall be forwarded to the Chief of the Division of Land Resource Programs, Department of Natural Resources, for review at least 14 days before a hearing by either the Board of Appeals or the planning or zoning commission.

CHAPTER XI SPECIAL USE PERMITS

Section 11.1 - PURPOSE. Special uses are those uses of land which are not essentially incongruous with the uses permitted in a zoning district, but possess characteristics or locational qualities which require individual review and restriction in order to avoid incompatibility with the character of the surrounding area, public services and facilities, and adjacent uses of land. The purpose of this chapter is to establish equitable procedures and criteria which shall be applied in the determination of requests to establish special uses. The criteria, procedures and requirements provided for under the provisions of this chapter shall be in addition to those required elsewhere in this Ordinance which are applicable to the special use under consideration.

Section 11.2 - APPLICATION PROCEDURES. An application for permission to establish a special use shall be submitted and acted upon in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) Application - Applications for special use permits shall be submitted through the Lovells Township Zoning Administrator to the Lovells Township Zoning Commission. Each application shall be accompanied by the payment of a fee in accordance with the schedule of fees adopted by the Lovells Township Board to cover the costs of processing the application. No part of any fee shall be refundable.

(b) Required information - An application for a special use permit shall be accompanied by the following documents and information:

- A special use application form supplied by the Zoning Administrator which has been completed in full by the applicant.
- A site plan, drawn to a readable scale, of the property involved and adjacent property, which describes all property boundaries; the location and use of all existing and proposed structures; the location of all existing and proposed streets, parking lots and driveways; and the current zoning classifications.
- A statement with regard to compliance with the criteria required for approval under Section 11.3, and other criteria imposed by this Ordinance affecting the special use under consideration.

(c) Hearing - After a preliminary review of an application for a special use permit, the Lovells Township Zoning Commission shall hold a public hearing(s) on the special use request. Notice of the hearing shall be given by mail or personal delivery to all residents and property owners within three hundred (300) feet of the property under consideration for a special use permit at least ten days prior to the date of the hearing. The notice shall indicate the place, time and subject of the hearing, including the geographic area being considered for a special use permit.

(d) Review and Approval - Within a reasonable time following the public hearing, the Lovells Township Zoning Commission shall review the application for a special use permit, testimony received at the public hearing, and other materials submitted in relation to the request, and make a determination as to whether the special use application is in accord with the criteria for approval stated in Chapter XI, and such other standards contained in this Ordinance which relate to the special use under consideration. The Lovells Township Zoning Commission may request a report on any special use application from the Zoning Administrator and/or the Lovells Township Planning Commission. Such a report shall assess the conformity of a special use request with the requirements of this Ordinance and the development objectives of the Township.

(e) Issuance of a special use permit - Upon the approval by the Lovells Township Zoning Commission, there will be a special use permit drawn with the proper specifications, signed by the Chairman of the Zoning Commission and the Zoning Administrator and applicant. The permit shall become valid fifteen (15) days after the date of decision. It shall be the responsibility of the Lovells Township Zoning Administrator to insure compliance with the terms, conditions and restrictions of any special use permit.

(f) Appeal - Within fifteen (15) days following the date of decision on any special use permit, any person or any aggrieved party, including any governmental body or agency, may appeal the decision of the Zoning Commission to the Board of Appeals. Upon the filing of an appeal, the application, all relevant documents and testimony, and the findings and decision of the Zoning Commission shall be transmitted to the Board of Appeals.

(g) Decisions - All decisions of the Zoning Commission and Board of Appeals relating to special use applications, including the findings supporting any decision, shall be recorded in written form and retained as permanent records.

Section 11.3 - BASIS OF DETERMINATION. Prior to approval of a special use application, the Zoning Commission shall insure that the standards specified in this section, as well as applicable standards established elsewhere in this Ordinance, shall be satisfied by the completion and operation of the special use under consideration.

(a) General Standards - The Lovells Township Zoning Commission shall review the particular circumstances of the special use request under consideration in terms of the following standards, and shall approve a special use only upon a finding of compliance with each of the following standards, as well as applicable standards established elsewhere in this Ordinance:

- The special use shall be designed, constructed, and operated and maintained in a manner harmonious with the character of adjacent property and the surrounding area:

- The special use shall not change the essential character of the surrounding area;
- The special use shall not interfere with the general enjoyment of adjacent property;
- The special use shall not be hazardous to adjacent property, or involve uses, activities, materials or equipment which will be detrimental to the health, safety or welfare of persons or property through the excessive production of traffic, noise, smoke, odor, fumes or glare;
- The special use shall be adequately served by essential public facilities and services, or it shall be demonstrated that the person responsible for the proposed use shall be able to continually provide adequately for the services and facilities deemed essential to the special use under consideration;
- The special use shall not place demands on public services and facilities in excess of current capacity; and
- The special use shall be consistent with the intent and purpose of this Ordinance, and the objectives of any currently adopted Township Development Plan.

(b) Conditions - The Lovells Township Zoning Commission may impose conditions with the approval of a special use which are necessary to insure compliance with the standards for approval stated in this Ordinance and any other applicable standards contained in this Ordinance. Such conditions shall be considered an integral part of the special use permit and shall be enforced by the Zoning Administrator.

Section 11.4 - PERMIT VALIDITY.

(a) Approval of a special use permit shall be valid regardless of change of ownership, provided that all terms and conditions of the permit are met by any subsequent owner.

(b) In instances where development authorized by a special use permit has not commenced within one year from the date of issuance, the permit will be reconsidered or voided at a regularly called meeting of the Lovells Township Zoning Commission.

Section 11.5 - HOME BUSINESS. Home business will be considered a special permitted use. The following regulations will be considered:

- A home business shall utilize not more than twenty-five (25%) percent of the floor area of the dwelling unit, and not more than seventy-five (75%) percent of the floor area of any accessory building. The accessory building in which the home business is situated shall not contain floor area greater than the ground floor area of the dwelling unit, or five hundred twenty-eight (528) square feet, whichever is less.
- The business shall involve not more than two employees in addition to members of the family residing on the premises.
- Adequate off-street parking space shall be provided in accord with the provisions of Section 12.2.
- Out-of-doors storage of products, equipment or merchandise shall not be permitted.
- No equipment or process shall be used which creates noise, vibration, glare, fumes, odors or electrical interference detectable beyond the limits of the lot.
- There shall be no external evidence of the home business other than one non-illuminated sign which does not exceed three square feet in area.
- The hours of operation shall not adversely affect the residential character of the surrounding area.

Section 11.6 - USE AND DEVELOPMENT ADJACENT TO GREENBELT ZONE. Within a 1,000' foot radius of any Greenbelt Zone, all proposed land uses and developments require approval of a special use permit, as outlined in said Chapter XI. Such approval is necessary to insure compatibility with the purposes and objectives of the adjacent Greenbelt zone.

County Adopts State Mechanical Code

Effective April 5, 1980 the State of Michigan adopted a nationally recognized Code which establishes standards in terms of performance objectives, implemented by specific requirements, which provide reasonable safeguards to protect the public health and safety against the hazards of inadequate, defective, or unsafe mechanical installations.

The mechanical code provides for the design, installation, maintenance, alteration, and inspection of mechanical systems which includes: heating systems; cooling systems; steam and hot water heating systems; process piping; boilers and pressure vessels; appliances using gas, liquid or solid fuel, including wood; chimneys and vents; mechanical refrigeration systems; fireplaces; installed barbecues, incinerators; fire suppression systems; air pollution control systems; and systems utilizing solar or geothermal energy, as an energy source.

Under the State Construction Code Act, Act 230, PA 1972, as amended, counties are responsible for the administration and enforcement of the Mechanical Code. In the event the county refuses to administer and enforce the Code, the State will then assume this responsibility.

After reviewing the Permit Fee Schedule adopted by the State, the Crawford County Board of Commissioners determined, that in the public interest, this Code could be administered and enforced locally at approximately a 50 per cent savings to County residents.

Therefore, effective June 1, 1980, permits will be required for mechanical installations listed above.

LOOK OVER FIRE ENGINE—What little girl wouldn't love to be able to bring a real big red fire engine to school for "Show and Tell!" Lori McClain did! Of course, it was driven by grandfather, Robert Golinick, who gave the class a chance to climb up in the cab, an explanation of how things work, and he finished up by handing out many brochures to the class on fire safety. One of the most important was a paper showing them how to roll on the ground should they ever catch on fire. They also received a paper on home fire safety check, Sparky's message, and a pin.
